CPH PATIENT PRIVACY NOTICE

INTRODUCTION

A Privacy Notice is a statement by the Hospital to patients, that describes how we collect, use, retain and disclose personal information which we hold.

Personal data means any information relating to an identified or identifiable, living natural person. An identifiable person is one who can be identified, directly or indirectly, for example by reference to an identifier such as a name.

Cheswold Park Hospital is a gender specific hospital for men. We assess and treat men with mental illness, personality disorder and learning disability who require specialist psychiatric care in a low or medium secure environment.

As part of the services we offer, we are required to process personal data about our service users.

“Processing” can mean:

-  Collecting
-  Recording
-  Organising
-  Storing
-  Sharing
-  Destroying data

We are committed to providing transparent information on why we need your personal data and what we do with it. This information is set out in this privacy notice. It will also explain your rights when it comes to your data.

We are the Data Controller for the information which we hold. Our Head Office address is Cheswold Park Hospital, Cheswold Lane, Doncaster, DN5 8AR.

WHAT DATA DO WE HAVE?

We may ask for or hold personal confidential information about you which will be used to support delivery of appropriate care and treatment. This is to support the provision of high-quality care.

We may record the following types of data about you:

- Your personal details e.g. name, address, date of birth, marital status, nearest relative, NHS number;

- Contacts such as nearest relative, main carer, next of kin, external health professionals and your Solicitor;
- Bank details if you wish to have a CPH finance account
- Information from people who care for you and know you well, such as health professionals and relatives;
- Education and learning records;
- Photographs;
- CCTV footage;

We also record the following data which is classified as “special category”:

- Health and social care data about you, which might include both your physical and mental health data, including any medical condition, diagnosis, care plans, clinical notes, medication,
- We may also record data about your race, ethnic origin, sexual orientation or religion.
- Information about criminal convictions and offences

WHY DO WE HAVE THIS DATA AND HOW IS YOUR PERSONAL DATA COLLECTED?

We collect personal information about you when you are referred or admitted to our hospital. We also created personal data while you are under our care.

We require this data so that we can provide high-quality care and support. It is important for us to have a complete picture, as this information assists staff involved in your care to deliver appropriate treatment and care plans, to meet your needs.

LAWFUL BASIS FOR PROCESSING

By law, we need to have a lawful basis for processing your personal data.

We process your data because:

- We have a legal obligation to do so – generally under the Health and Social Care Act 2012, Mental Capacity Act 2005, The Mental Health Act 2007;
- We have a legitimate interest in processing your data – for example we operate a CCTV scheme for the purpose of detecting the incidence of crime, assisting investigations of incidents, protecting and maintaining the wellbeing of patients, staff and visitors;

We process your special category data because:

- processing is necessary for the purposes of preventive or occupational medicine, medical diagnosis, the provision of health or social care or treatment;
- It is necessary due to social security and social protection law;
- It is necessary for us to provide and manage social care services;

- We are required to provide data to our regulator, the Care Quality Commission (CQC), as part of our public interest obligations.

We may also process your data with your consent. If we need to ask for your permission, we will offer you a clear choice and ask that you confirm to us that you consent. We will also explain clearly to you what we need the data for and how you can withdraw your consent.

WHERE DO WE PROCESS YOUR DATA?

So that we can provide you with high quality care and support we need specific data. This is collected from or shared with:

1. Cheswold Park Hospital team members (people that are involved in your care);
2. You or your legal representative(s);
3. Third parties.

We do this face to face, via phone, via email, via our website, via post, via application forms.

Third parties are organisations we have a reason to share your data with. These include:

- Other parts of the health and care system such as local hospitals, the GP, the pharmacy, social workers, clinical commissioning groups, and other health and care professionals;
- Other organisations involved in your care or are responsible for your funding
- The Local Authority;
- Organisations we have a legal obligation to share information with i.e. for safeguarding, the CQC;
- The police or other law enforcement agencies if we have to by law or court order;
- Other “data processors”, as we sometimes subcontract our services to other providers like: Incident Management System Provider, Medication Administration System, Electronic Care Records Provider, Independent Advocacy Service, and Documents Scanning. None of our third-party service providers are allowed to use your personal data for their own purposes.

HOW DO WE KEEP YOUR INFORMATION SAFE

We are committed to keeping your information secure and have operational policies and procedures in place to protect your information. Cheswold Park Hospital is accredited to Industry Standard ISO27001 which is an internationally recognised information security framework;

The Hospital completes an annual mandatory information assurance return to NHS Digital -the Data Security and Protection Toolkit. The Data Security and Protection Toolkit is a tool that enables organisations to measure performance against the National Data Guardian's ten data security standards.

Cheswold Park Hospital has a Caldicott Guardian, who is responsible for protecting the confidentiality of patient information and enabling the appropriate sharing of information.

The Hospital has also appointed a Data Protection Officer (DPO) who is responsible for ensuring that the Organisation is able to demonstrate its compliance with the General Data Protection Regulation and Data Protection Act 2018.

All employees and our partner organisations are legally bound to respect your confidentiality, all staff must comply with our security operating procedures. All staff are required to undertake annual information governance training and to be familiar with information governance policies and procedures. Any breach of these is treated seriously and could result in disciplinary action.

HOW LONG DOES THE HOSPITAL KEEP YOUR DATA

All records held by Cheswold Park Hospital are subject to our Data Retention and Records Information Policies. These documents set out guidance on how long we should keep your information before we are required to review it and dispose of it securely. The Data Protection Act 2018 requires us to keep records for no longer than necessary. The length of time for retaining records will depend on the type of record, its importance to the Hospital's business functions, and legal requirements, for example care records where the person has been cared for under the Mental Health Act 1983 are as standard kept for 20 years, however in certain circumstances this period can be altered.

YOUR RIGHTS

The data that we keep about you is your data and we ensure that we keep it confidential and that it is used appropriately. You have the following rights when it comes to your data:

1. The right to access to the information we hold about you.
You have the right to request a copy of all of the data we keep about you. This is known as a "Data Subject Access Request". You will not have to pay a fee to access your personal information. However, we may charge a reasonable fee if your request for access is clearly unfounded or excessive. We may not be able to supply you with some information if for example it has been provided by someone else who has not given permission for you to see it or it could cause physical or mental harm to you or someone else.
2. The right to be informed how we collect, use, store and share your information in a clear and transparent manner.
3. The right to rectification in specific circumstances. You have the right to ask us to correct any data we have which you believe to be inaccurate. It is important that the information we hold about you is accurate. Please inform us about any changes so we can update our records accordingly. You can also request that we restrict all processing of your data while we consider your rectification request;
4. The right to erasure in specific circumstances. You have the right to request that we erase any of your personal data which is no longer necessary for the purpose we originally collected it for. We retain our data in line with the Hospital's Retention Policy. We will not keep your personal data for longer than is necessary for the purpose.

5. You may also request that we restrict processing if we no longer require your personal data for the purpose, we originally collected it for, but you do not wish for it to be erased.
6. You can ask for your data to be erased if we have asked for your consent to process your data. You can withdraw consent at any time – please contact us to do so.
7. If we are processing your data as part of our legitimate interests as an organisation or in order to complete a task in the public interest, you have the right to object to that processing. We will restrict all processing of this data while we look into your objection.
8. You have the right to request the transfer of your personal information to another party (The right to data portability)
9. The right not to be subject to automated decision-making. Cheswold Park Hospital does not use your information to make automated decisions about you, nor to undertake profiling.
